Holdup in Drug Store.

Three Men Disappear Empty Handed After a Battle.

A druggist, Morris Moskowitz, was held up in his drug store at 151 Sixth avenue early yesterday morning by three men. They made such a bungle of the job that they aroused the clerks and the robbers had to seek flight without getting any plunder.

About 4 o'clock three men walked into the store and one of them asked for cigarettes. When Moskowitz turned around with them he found himself looking into a revolver. There was a request for instant delivery of all loose change in the store, but Moskowitz thought he would take a chance and drop behind the counter. As he did so one of them grabbed him and in the struggle that followed a showcase was overturned.

The crash brought Moskowitz's two clerks, Adolph Moskowitz and Sam Block, who were asleep in the rear room, to the front of the store, and the three robbers broke for the door and disappeared.

Moskowitz says that just before the men entered he received a telephone message from a woman to the effect that he was going to be robbed and that he had better call the police. Moskowitz thought it was a joke.

NOTHING FOR ANYBODY.

Assets of Roblin's Bankers Realty and Security Co. Described as Ethereal.

A meeting of creditors of the Bankers Realty and Security Company of Forty-second street and Broadway, one of the companies controlled by Joseph G. Roblin, was held yesterday afternoon at the office of W. H. Willis, referee in bankruptcy, at 92 Beaver street. About fifty creditors were present or represented by attorneys, many of whom were from Albany, Philadelphia and other cities.

The referee said that it was a company of magnificent figures and very few houses, a hot air case full of investments and fraud and very little money. Found no assets, he said, but that anything was any estate. It was stated that the receiver has about $100 in bank balances. The schedules showed liabilities of $1,225,511 and nominal assets $1,188,224.

Ironworkers Won't Give In.

The officers of the unions of structural ironworkers said yesterday that the threat by the Allied Iron Trades of a general lockout of all the ironworkers on sixty-five buildings until the strike of the unions or ornamental ironworkers on seven buildings is called off will have no effect on the unions of ironworkers. One-half of the structural ironworkers are now locked out on these buildings and the other half are to be locked out on Friday if the strike is not called off. The buildings in the meantime. The unions say they will keep up the fight as long as the employers.

Rip Van Winkle'd get the surprise of his life if he came here for a Fall suit.

He'd be astonished at the way we do business nowadays—"your money back if you want it."

At the great quantity of our suits.

At the variety of styles, patterns and weaves—their bright October hues.

At the ready fit, and the indisputable air of a gentleman which our very modern styles convey, even to Rip's strange eyes.
